

Check List & Critique Sheet

Name: _____

FROM TOP TO BOTTOM

- Rubric (please get one from Liz on Friday)
- Check List & Critique Sheet (This one)
- Completed Draft for Liz
- Complete Draft from Tuesday (w/ two signatures from in-class reviewers)
- Draft from Friday
- Critique Sheet #2 (Partial Draft) from Friday (w/ two adult signatures)
- Introduction w/ critiques
- Narrative Planning Questions
- Photo Analysis

Helpful Feedback #3

Self-Disclosure: Where are you and what would you like help with?

Review #1

Name: _____

Historical Accuracy / Relevance & Writing Conventions.

Read through the entire document, taking as much time as you need to do a thorough job. Remember, your classmates would appreciate you taking this seriously. Do as good of a job as you would like someone to do with yours.

- The narrative is strongly rooted in the historical context. Characters, setting, theme, and dialogue represent the authors understanding of the historical time period.
- The final product reflects careful revision and attention to detail. Few to no punctuation, spelling, or grammar mistakes are found which allows the reader to become fully immersed in the dialogue.

You can write on the paper. Below write 1-2 pieces of positive feedback.

Review #2

Name: _____

Composition, Theme/Message, & Use of Creative and Descriptive Language.

Read through the entire document, taking as much time as you need to do a thorough job. Remember, your classmates would appreciate you taking this seriously. Do as good of a job as you would like someone to do with yours.

- The final narrative is structured coherently. The narrative flows very well from beginning to end.
- The author’s theme / message is clear. The message is either stated in the beginning or unraveled by the end to leave the reader with a clear understanding of the author’s perspective and intended message.
- Creative and descriptive language is used throughout the narrative. The language allows for the reader to “experience” the event, but leaves some room for imagination.

You can write on the paper. Below write 1-2 pieces of positive feedback.
